DELAY HIGH SCHOOL OPENING; GRADES BEGIN ON TUESDAY

Uncompleted Construction Work Postpones High Classes Until Sept. 9

The 235 registered Antioch Township high school students will not go back to school until Monday, September 9.

Grade school pupils will start their school term Tuesday, September 3, the day after Labor Day as originally announced.

Postponement of high school opening for one week was due to uncompleted construction work in remodeling the basement section of the south wing which was started early last spring and on which emergency relief employment was used until August 1. The school district took over the task of finishing the basement rooms in which the library and work rooms are being installed, together with adequate space for storage.

Two New Teachers
Two new faculty members will greet the students this term with the addition of a physical education director, and the replacement of Mrs. Gladys Dardenne who resigned from the commercial department. She will be replaced by Miss Lina Drummond of Joliet who has taught in her home city, Greer business college in Chicago and at Baraboo, Wis.

As physical education has been made compulsory for Antioch high school students this year, R. H. Childers of Baraboo, Wis., here he taught for seven years, has been added to the faculty as director of physical education and athletic coach. He will likewise serve as a history instructor, Principal L. O. Bright announces.

The results of the high school registration Monday and Tuesday indicate that there will be 235 in attendance to start the 1935 fall term. Of the number, 79 are newcomers in the Freshman class. There were 61 registered as Sophomores, 46 Juniors, 46 Seniors and 3 post-graduates.

Sixth 7th Grade Teacher
While the 200 Antioch grade school pupils return to their classrooms Monday, Superintendent Ralph E. Cladagh and the Board of Education are reviewing several applications for a 7th grade teacher. The vacancy occurred with the resignation of Miss Mildred Byrnes recently. The school board expects to fill the position within the next few days after careful consideration is given to each applicant. A temporary 7th grade teacher will fill the position until a definite decision is made by the board.

Of the country schools in the community, the Channel Lake school will open with Miss Lillian Vykula of Antioch as the new teacher of the upper grades. She replaces Miss Rhoda Jodelle of Wilmet who was graduated from the Northern State Teachers College at DeKalb last spring.

Bagworms Arrive to Menace Shade Trees in State

Newest arrivals among insect enemies of Illinois trees this year are bagworms on many overgreen trees as well as on some of the box elders, soft maples, lindens, and willows. It is reported by V. P. Flint, chief entomologist for the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois and the Illinois State Natural History Survey. The worms appear during August in little moveable cocoons hanging from the leaves. They are not actual cocoons but little houses for the worms and give the bagworm its name. Flint explained. The most satisfactory mixture for spraying is made of 2 pounds of lead arsenate, 2 pounds of lime and 60 gallons of water. The lime is sometimes needed to prevent burning of the foliage by water-soluble arsenic in the spray. During the coming winter further control may be obtained by picking the bags off the smaller trees. The bags should be burned.

Russell Lad Snaps Arm from Falling

A fall from a short chair, resulted in a badly broken arm Sunday evening for Jimmie Murrie, six-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Murrie of Russell. The lad, who had been accustomed to climbing and tumbling around while at play, was rushed to the Kenosha hospital where X-ray pictures disclosed that the arm bones were completely snapped. The arm was set and the bones are already in the mend, the physicians said.

Lakes Region Set to Entertain Big Labor Day Crowd

Antioch and the Lakes region are preparing to entertain one of the season's largest crowds over the Labor day holiday, which usually officially marks the close of the resort season—however—the opening of Chicago schools has been delayed until September 16, and local tradesmen and resort owners are counting on a two weeks' extension of the season. This, in a measure, will make up for the weeks lost in the early part of the season because of rain and unseasonable weather.

HOMESTEAD PLAN NOT RESTRICTED BY PREFERENCES

Legion Editor Clears Mis- conceptions in Interview with Federal Agent

Because of the many requests for information as to the possible preference of veterans on the Federal Government Homestead farms in Lake County and to clarify the situation, Dan Hunt, editor of the Lake County Legionnaire, obtained a personal interview with William E. Webster, of Libertyville, connected with the government project in this county.

"Many people," began Mr. Webster, "have the mistaken idea that this is exclusively a relief project and that only those families on relief will be permitted to take advantage of the government's offer of a farm home. There is not a bit of truth in this supposition, for the project is self-amortizing, that is, it pays off in a stipulated period of time."

In the first place the head of the family must be working and earning at least $700 per year and not more than $1,000 a year, and not over 50 years of age. In the second place there is no provision made for any preference to any class of citizens or veterans unless they come within the wage and age category mentioned.

"The cost to the owner will be $4,000 each, more or less, according to the size of house necessary. The size of the house will be determined by the size of the family, number and sex of the children. This amount covers the cost of the buildings and land only. Other out-buildings in the present plan include a combination barnyard, chicken coop, cowshed and tool shed and garage. Each house will have a basement."

"All trees, shrubs, plants and seeds must be furnished by the homesteader. Likewise the cow, chickens, and implements. This action was forced by the many variations in opinion of the homesteaders themselves, as to what breed, size and number of animals would be required. Thus no group purchase and consequent saving of money by the government could be made."

"Each home will contain roughed-in plumbing, but only the kitchen sink will be in place. The toilet and bathroom fixtures, as well as the sanitary tubs in the basement will be left for the homesteader to buy and install himself. This action was again decided upon when variance of opinion in choice by homesteaders was apparent."

Electric light wiring will also be installed, but for the reason already given, no fixtures will be installed. This one feature should be of outstanding benefit to the surrounding farms, for, in many cases, the initial cost of introducing electricity into the neighborhood will be borne by the government. Because of this the neighboring farmers will be enabled to electrify their farms without the burdensome initial cost, thus the whole district benefits by the introduction of the homesteaders."

"Each property will have a good well dug on it, one that will produce sweet water, of sufficient quantity and quality to supply the needs of the household and its animals. Where a number of homesteads extend back of the present or main road, a sub-road will be built to give the homesteads accessibility to the main road."

"There are eleven tracts of land in Lake County which have been divided into tracts and upon which the necessary wells, houses and buildings will be erected this fall. There is a 60-acre tract near Lake Zurich; 110-acre tract near Wilbur; 120-acre tract near Wadsworth, east of Green Bay Road; and a 120-acre tract on Green Bay Road, near the Wisconsin state line. All of them on good concrete or gravel roads accessible all the year around—this is an important feature of the plan—making it easy for the husband to get to and from work in all weather."

8,000 FARMERS ATTEND OUTING

County Ruralites Take Day off to Celebrate Their Largest Picnic

Rural Lake County residents, numbering 8,000, participated in the largest farmers' picnic ever held in the county when they gathered on the shore of Diamond Lake Tuesday.

From the opening of the stock judging contests in the three tented shelters in the morning until the dancing stopped in the wee hours of the following morning, the milling crowds of farmers caught up on their annual day of play. Prizes galore were awarded to winning exhibitors with the lads from Antioch coming home with their share of the spoils.

(The activities of the Antioch boys will be found in a separate article in this edition.)

George Thayer, who is 91 years old, took home the award for the oldest person in attendance, while the Silas Nichols' of Waukegan captured the oldest married couple prize with a record of 62 years since they were married. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Williams, wedded 20 days, were declared the youngest married couple.

DeKalb county baseball team put the only mar on the festivities when they trimmed the Lake county farm bureau team out of the district championship, winning 10 to 4. Thomas Huffman is the county horseshoe singles champ, and with Mortie Koel, took the doubles crown.

Harry C. Oikerson of Grayslake, county farm adviser and boys' 4-H club director, and Miss Florence Kimmetshue, county home adviser and girls' 4-H club director, were the leaders in presenting the picnic. Others having major roles in the day's success were: Mrs. E. E. Elsbury, William Chandler, LeRoy Kane, H. A. Matthews, George Berghorn, A. J. Stahl. Each of these chairmen had large staffs of assistants.

Dilling, Oshkosh state teachers' college; Mrs. Lucy Holloway, reading demonstrator of Macmillan company; Mrs. E. G. Speedy Train Kills Wadsworth Resident

George Foster, 73, well known Wadsworth resident, was killed Tuesday morning after straggling directly into a fast moving northbound Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific railroad train at Wadsworth road and the railroad. He had lived in Wadsworth for 25 years in the first house west of the tracks and was accustomed to strolling along the road. Witnesses state that Foster disregarded the flagman's warning and kept right on walking across the tracks, apparently deaf to the train's rumbling. He operated a warehouse for many years in which farmers in the vicinity have stored foodstuffs for shipment by the railroad. Surviving is a widow, Mrs. Jessie Foster of Wadsworth, and a sister living in California.

Democrats to Define Political Issues at Big Picnic September 9

The position of Lake County in the Democratic political field will be clearly defined at the Fourth Annual county Democratic picnic to be held Sunday, September 8, in Serbian Monastery park north of Libertyville. It is thought by political chieftains of the county.

Most plans for the day's outing have been completed, reports Elmer Sorenson, of Channel Lake, general chairman of the picnic committee, and preparations are already underway to accommodate a crowd of more than 10,000 people. Just what form of dynamite will be used by the speakers of the day in starting activities for the Democratic primary next April 7, was not disclosed by the political leaders.

In addition to discussions of the political situation by leading Democrats in the county, state and national organizations, there is being provided a variety of entertainment, sports events for both adults and children, dancing, and other features. As one of the sports features, the softball team representing the Channel Lake athletic club will meet a picked team from Waukegan.

Crete Man Has "Neatest Dairy Farm"

Chicago's "Neatest Dairy Farm" is the George Ohlendorf farm of Crete, Illinois, President John P. Case of the Pure Milk Association announced Tuesday following the selection by the "Neatest Farm contest judges."

The choosing of Mr. Ohlendorf's dairy farm closed the Association's yearly contest for its approximate 18,000 membership in which the nearest dairy farms of the Pure Milk Association are suitably honored with the right to display the Association's "Award of Merit" plaque.

Judges in the contest to select the winner were Dean Chris L. Christensen of the University of Wisconsin, Dr. H. A. Ruehe of the University of Illinois, and Dr. H. W. Gregory of Purdue University. Neatness of the dairy farm, regardless of the financial layout was the primary consideration in selecting the "Award of Merit" winners.

Sixty-two Pure Milk Association dairy farms throughout the 2300 square mile area, which composes the Chicago milk shed, were honored with the "Award of Merit" plaque because they score 90 per cent or better on the neatness and cleanliness of their farms.

LEGION FESTIVAL STARTS FRIDAY; RUNS FOUR DAYS

Committee Prepares Grand Jamboree for Labor Day Crowds

Antioch Legion men today were active in completing final plans for the big four-day festival starting tomorrow and running through Labor day. Heading the committee are Commander Otto S. Klass and Service Officer John Horan who yesterday visited many of the towns in this locality advertising the event far and wide.

Yesterday the Doolan Amusement company of Chicago moved their paraphernalia, including the largest ferris wheel ever seen in this locality, on to the grounds located on the lot with Ray's Sinclair Service on Main street, opposite the Antioch postoffice. Legion men have seen to it that there will be plenty to eat, plenty to drink, and almost every form of amusement.

Merchants Liberal
Committee members today expressed themselves as being well pleased with the splendid co-operation given them by local merchants who have been liberal in donating prizes to be given to festival visitors each night at 10:30 o'clock.

With the continuance of fair weather the Legionnaires are anticipating the largest attendance ever seen in Antioch at a similar event.

Crybaby Zaharias To Meet McMillen On Round Lake Mat

Those two wrestlers who get along like scotch and St. Vitis dance, Jim McMillen of Antioch, ranking number one contender for the world's heavyweight championship, and Crybaby George Zaharias, the weeping Colorado Greek best farmer, are scheduled to meet in the Round Lake Haunted House arena, Friday, September 6.

This is the fourth meeting of the pair in the ten years each has wrestled professionally with Antioch Jim holding a two to one edge over the "meanest wrestler of them all." Zaharias is the grapping gent who started a mass riot in the ring after his Chicago match with Champion Danno O'Mahony when the referee gave the Irishman the decision. The Crybaby started to break up the place, declaring that the referee had given him "the works" and not his opponent. Now he craves another bang at Danno; but so does Jim.

Call out Riot Squad
If past performances are any indication, the customers who thought the recent brawl between Plummer and Rahnes was the last word in rowdiness will think they were attending a chess tournament when Zaharias does his stuff. The bout will mark McMillen's return to ring wars following a three-weeks' training period at the Chicago Bears football camp where he was playing, coaching and helping to whip his teammates into condition.

With the main event closed, the matchmaker is seeking to line up Waukegan Lou Plummer, Ray Richards of Nebraska, and other favorites. Bobby Bruns of Lake Villa has already offered to meet Plummer for a side-bet consideration of $500.

Lewie Smacks Kirschmeyer
At last week's show, Ed Strangler Lewis, the ex-champ of yesteryears, granted and groaned a decision over Roland Kirschmeyer, the Oklahoma colliester, after clipping the volleyball on the chin with a flock of elbow pokes. With the lad dazed and helpless, the Strangler clamped on his well-known headlock amid bouquets of Bronx cheers after 40 minutes of scrapping. Kirschmeyer was the customers' favorite and had the veteran squawking most of the time.

Bobby Bruns of Lake Villa stole the show by entering the ring against Olaf Olson, the strong Milwaukee Swede, and scrapping the full time to a draw. Trial-horse Hans Bauer of Germany and Gentleman Jack Smith of Chicago mugged about demonstrating various grips in the preliminaries and ended in another draw.

WHO WILL MAKE UP THE LOSS?

There is one phase of government ownership of industry that has received less notice than it deserves: If states, cities or the federal government take over such enterprises as the railroads and the public utilities, who is going to make up the vast taxes that these concerns now pay to all units of government?

An advertisement of the Alabama Power Company focuses attention on this. According to the ad, the power company pays to county and city governments in Jefferson county alone (which includes the city of Birmingham), the handsome sum of $604,000 a year in taxes. Of this amount, about $175,000 goes directly to the public schools, and represents a substantial part of their total revenue.

At present, it is being advocated that the Tennessee Valley Authority take over all operations in the state of Alabama, supplanting the existing private power concerns. The TVA would pay no county taxes whatsoever, and no other taxes in which the counties and their residents would share. As a result, the taxpayers of Alabama would have to make up the tax loss, and accept heavy increases in all forms of taxes now paid by them—or cut school, road or other governmental budgets.

And what would the taxpayers receive in return? They would receive—possibly—good and inexpensive electric service, which is precisely what they are receiving now from the heavily taxed private utility. But, where the private utility is stringently regulated by the state, in the light of local needs and conditions, the TVA would be subjected to no local control—and would be responsive only to the whims of Washington-appointed office-holders.

Loss of tax revenue inevitably follows acquisition of industries—whether they be acquired by the TVA, by states, by cities or by any other public body. In the long run, only the politicians' benefit—while the struggling taxpayer foots the bill.

ECONOMIC INSANITY

The American tax system is outmoded, wasteful, inefficient—and essentially vicious. That is a digest of statements recently made by a number of economists of standing.

It is especially vicious when it comes to the so-called "share-the-wealth" tax measures which propose that higher taxes be levied against individuals and corporations. "Big-business" is to be penalized for being "big." And, according to the advocates of these measures, the average citizen will benefit—wealth will pay the bill, and he will receive the services of government for little or nothing. What a misrepresentation of fact!

The average citizen who is taxed to death now, will be taxed still more as new taxes are created. Every tax on industry must be paid by him, through higher prices for commodities and services. Every new tax adds to his cost of living.

The confiscatory "share-the-wealth" tax bill now pending in Congress would, according to its sponsors, cause increased federal income of $270,000,000 a year. If that is true, it would "redistribute wealth" to the tune of about $2.25 for each man, woman and child in this country. And it would fall $3,000,000,000 short of meeting the deficit incurred in the last fiscal year alone!

It is possible that such schemes are put forward in an attempt to blind our citizens to the fact that we need tax reduction and fewer taxes—and not tax increases and new taxes. Overtax wealth—and you kill initiative, employment and industrial development. Overtax industry—and the consumer finds himself faced with rising prices and declining income. As a recovery measure, that looks like economic insanity.

ABIDE BY SOUND PRINCIPLES

A call to all farm cooperatives to abide by sound cooperative principles and not to rely upon governmental assistance, has been issued by the National Cooperative Council of Washington, D. C. The Council represents cooperatives with 1,260,000 members, doing an annual business in excess of $1,000,000,000.

In its resolution, the Council laid down a number of guiding principles essential to the success of co-ops. It pointed out that business cooperatives are called upon to meet the competition of keen, well-financed organizations—and that to function properly under such conditions the cooperative must be equally well financed and established. A substantial bank balance, and first-class executives to carry on the management, are vital. And to keep the co-op going, an aggressive, continuous membership campaign should be carried on, with the purpose not only of increasing the membership, but of keeping members informed and interested in the work of their organization.

The Council speaks with the voice of experience, breeder of wisdom. Political aid to an agricultural or any other group is necessarily transitory—dictated as it is by partisan interests, it cannot have stability and permanence. The co-ops which are making progress are depending upon their own efforts—not on outside aid, and they are following such simple, yet essential principles as those laid down by the Council.

SAFEGUARDING THE INVESTOR

Government regulation of stock sales in the United States is said to have driven many high pressure salesmen of "phony" stocks out of the country. Such "salesmen" too often specialized in mining shares.

Before the days of blue-sky laws, mining securities were regarded with suspicion—the best and most honestly operated properties often had difficulty in raising capital because of the machinations of unscrupulous and crooked promoters. The few damaged the many—and everyone involved, save the crook, was the loser.

Of the myriad new federal laws and restrictions, security regulation seems to be one of the few that is of real benefit to the people. The investor has assurance that securities offered him are based on legitimate business activities and that the prospectus tells the truth. If an issue is speculative, it must be so labeled, which is certainly fair enough. Both those who wish to gamble, and those who wish to invest conservatively, can make an intelligent choice of issues.

"Place any man behind a governmental desk and give him a few million dollars of government money to spend and he is likely to develop the fixation that any one who does not approve of the way he does his job is a public enemy."—Tyler Dennett, President, Williams College.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Mind" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 25.

The Golden Text was, "Who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ" (1 Cor. 2:16).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Great is our Lord, and of great power: his understanding is infinite. He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth: his word runneth very swiftly" (Psalms 147:5, 15).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Mind is God. . . . We can have but one Mind, if that one is infinite. We bury the sense of individuality when we admit that, although God is infinite, evil has a place in this infinity, for evil can have no place, where all space is filled with God" (p. 480).

Meerschmum is Stone
Meerschmum (the material from which some pipes are made) is not wood—it is stone. The word means "stoneframe." It is a clay-like silicate of manganese which, when thoroughly dry, will float on water. Meerschmum is exported from Esaki-Shehr in Asia Minor, where it is dug from shallow pits.

Mrs. Mapletorphe Is Appointed to Antioch Library Board

Due to the resignation of Mrs. Hugh Galbraith, recently elected Library director, Mrs. Arthur Mapletorphe has been appointed by the board to take over the remainder of the term. Mrs. Mapletorphe has given much time to the Library and has been a director before.

The youngsters will be glad to learn that the Library has renewed its connection with the Literary Guild, which has furnished much fine juvenile literature. The new books should start to arrive soon after school opens.

Pies—Cross Face, Open Face, Covered

While apple pie is probably America's favorite pie, and is used as a standard of pie perfection, there are many other varieties which bring gustatory pleasure to widely divergent tastes.

You have all heard the story of the restaurant patron who asked what kind of pie was to be had, and the waitress replied: "Crossface, open face and kivered, all apple, sir."

Here's an apple pie—that's different:

Fill a pastry-lined pie tin with apples, which have been pared and cored and cut into eighths. Sprinkle thickly with sugar, and moisten with a few tablespoons of water. Bake until apples are tender, then spread with halved marshmallows.

And here's another pie with apples as the motif:

Marlborough Pie
Pastry crust
1 egg
2 large apples
1/2 lemon, juice and grated rind
2 tablespoons butter
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup thick cream.

Cook the apples which have been pared and cored, in a little water as possible. When tender put through sieve. Add the butter and egg. Beat in the egg yolk, add lemon juice, and rind, sugar and cream. Line the pan and fill with the mixture, bake in a hot oven. Cover with a meringue made of the stiffly beaten white of egg, to which 2 tablespoons of powdered sugar have been added. Return to oven and brown.

Cocoa Meringue Pie
Baked pie shell
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/3 cup cocoa
1 pint boiling milk
1/2 cup sugar
2 eggs
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
2 tablespoons powdered sugar.
Mix cocoa, sugar, cornstarch and salt together well, then add gradually the boiling milk and cook in double boiler until thick, stirring all the time. Remove from the fire and add the egg yolks which have been well beaten. Return to the fire and cook a few minutes longer. Flavor and turn into the pastry shell. Cover with a meringue made of the egg white stiffly beaten to which 2 tablespoons of powdered sugar have been added.

Banana Pie
Fill a pastry lined pie tin with sliced, peeled bananas. Dot well with bits of butter, then sprinkle over with 1/2 cup of sugar and about 1/4 cup melted currant jelly. Dredge lightly with flour and bake with two crusts, until a golden brown.

Butterscotch Pie
Pastry crust
2 1/2 tablespoons butter
1 cup brown sugar
1 1/4 cups scalded milk
1 egg
1 tablespoon cornstarch
2 tablespoons powdered sugar
Any desired flavoring.

Melt together the butter and sugar. Cook until a rich brown then add the hot milk. Simmer a few minutes or until the sugar is dissolved. Beat together the egg yolk and corn starch, pour over it a little of the hot mixture, then turn into the hot liquid and mix well. Pour into the pastry lined pie tin and bake until the custard is set. Spread with meringue made of the stiffly beaten egg white to which 2 tablespoons powdered sugar is added. Flavor if desired and brown in oven lightly.

Pineapple Napoleons
Pastry crust
Grated pineapple, drained
Powdered sugar
Whipped cream

Bake a pastry crust of puff paste and cut immediately into squares. Spread first crust with a half-inch layer of well drained crushed pineapple and sprinkle with powdered sugar. Add another crust and spread with whipped cream. Put on the top crust and garnish with pineapple and whipped cream.

Pineapple Meringue
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 1/2 cups hot milk
2 eggs
1 cup well drained crushed pineapple

Mix the sugar, salt and cornstarch and slowly add 1 1/2 cups hot milk. Cook in double boiler until thick (about 40 minutes). Pour onto egg yolks and return to double boiler and cook until thickened, about 3 minutes. Cool and add the crushed pineapple and vanilla. Pour into a baked crust and cover with a meringue made of the egg whites, stiffly beaten, to which the powdered sugar is added. Brown quickly in hot oven.

Pineapple Crust Pie
2 1/2 cups crushed pineapple
Syrup from canned pineapple
1/3 cup flour
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
Juice of 1 lemon
Pastry crust
Drain the syrup from the canned crushed pineapple and heat the syrup. Mix the flour, sugar and salt to-

Doughnuts Make Hit at Fall Parties

Smart hostesses serve doughnuts for Fall parties as well as breakfasts. Try these hints:

Doughnuts
1 egg
1 1/2 tablespoons shortening
3/4 cup milk
4 cups pastry flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon nutmeg
Powdered sugar (1/2 cup)
Beat egg well, stir in shortening and add sugar. Stir in one-fourth cup milk and beat with egg beater one minute. Sift dry ingredients together and add alternately with rest of milk to make a soft dough. Add more flour if necessary. Roll out to 1/4 inch thick on slightly floured board. Cut with doughnut cutter and allow to stand on a floured board ten minutes before frying. Drop them into fat hot enough to brown a piece of bread in sixty seconds (375 degrees). When doughnuts rise to the top of the hot fat turn them over with a fork. The entire surface must be evenly browned. Allow to cook about four minutes after turning. Remove from fat and allow to drain on unglazed paper. Makes about three dozen doughnuts.

They may be dusted with confectioners' sugar, frosted with white frosting and sprinkled with shredded coconut, frosted with chocolate or served plain with coffee for breakfast or cider later in the day.

Use Cutouts
The mixture itself may be varied by the addition of melted chocolate to the batter or various flavoring extracts.

Fry the cut out centers in the hot fat when the doughnuts are all done. Frost them with confectioners' sugar moistened with milk or water and roll them in grated coconut. These are ready for service with a fragrant cup of India tea for the afternoon gathering.

Don't put the waffle iron high up on a cupboard shelf during the summer months, for there are now summer waffles as well as winter waffles. Some day, when you have the makings of a green vegetable salad in the refrigerator, make up your mind to have a waffle dessert.

Serve the vegetable salad with bran muffins as a first course. Then wind-up the meal triumphantly with summer dessert waffles, topped with ice cream and a fruit sauce—raspberries or any other fruit in season.

Summer Dessert Waffles
2 1/2 cups sifted cake flour; 2 1/2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder; 2 teaspoons sugar; 2 egg yolks, well beaten; 1 1/2 cups milk; 2/3 cup melted butter; 2 egg whites, stiffly beaten.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and sugar, and sift again. Combine egg yolks, milk, and butter; add to flour mixture, beating until smooth. Fold in egg whites. Bake in hot waffle iron. Cool waffles. Serve a mound of vanilla ice cream on each section of waffle and cover with crushed, sweetened fruit or sauce. Makes five or six 4-section waffles. Remaining waffles may be served cold with any fruit sauce poured over them.

gether and add the hot syrup, return to fire and bring to boiling point, stirring constantly. Remove from heat, add the drained pineapple and lemon juice. Pour into a pastry lined pie tin and cover with an upper layer of crust, either solid or striped. Bake in a hot oven until brown.

Rhubarb Pie
Pastry for double crust pie
3 cups rhubarb
1 1/2 cups sugar
Line large deep pie tin with the pastry and fill with rhubarb cut into quarter-inch pieces. Sprinkle sugar over top. Moisten rim of crust with cold water, place on top crust. Press edges together firmly. Bake in a 325 degree oven until golden brown. A mixture of equal parts of rhubarb and strawberries is a delicious variation.

Fresh Peach Pie Glaze
3 fresh peaches (4 cups), sliced
1/2 cup sugar
1 package orange gelatin
1 1/2 cups warm water
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 baked 9-inch pie shell.
Combine peaches and sugar and let stand 10 minutes. Dissolve gelatin in warm water. Add salt and pour over peaches. Chill. When slightly thickened, turn into cold pie shell. Chill until firm. Garnish with whipped cream, if desired.

Berry Custard Pie
1 cup flour
2 egg yolks
2 tablespoons sugar
1 cup milk
2 egg whites
1/4 cup sugar
Line the pie tin with pastry crust, put in the sweetened raspberries. Sprinkle lightly with flour. In a bowl mix the egg yolks, 2 tablespoons of sugar and add milk. Pour over the berries and bake until thick. Beat egg whites, add 1/4 cup sugar and spread over top and brown lightly.

Suggestions on How to Use Ham Leftovers

When the whole ham has been the "big" moment of a Sunday dinner, it is a great help to have a number of recipes for service of leftovers occasionally during the following ten days or two weeks.

Ham a la King
2 cups diced baked ham
1 1/2 cups water
1 1/2 cups evaporated milk
2 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons butter
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 teaspoon celery salt
1 1/2 cups sautéed mushrooms
2 egg yolks
1 tablespoon diced green pepper
1/2 cup pimiento cut into thin strips.
Put water, evaporated milk, egg yolks and seasonings into a saucepan. Melt fat and then add flour which is added to the liquid, when it has reached the simmering point. Add the diced ham, green pepper and mushrooms and lastly the pimientos. Serve on toast. Serves six to eight.

Ham Salad
3 cups diced cooked ham
1 cup crisp lettuce, shredded
1 cup chopped sweet pickles
1/2 cup diced celery
1/2 cup diced cucumbers (if desired)
1/2 cup sweet red pepper, chopped
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1 teaspoon mustard.
Toss all ingredients together, moisten with mayonnaise mixed with mustard. Serve on crisp lettuce. Garnish with mayonnaise. Serves 6.

Hamburger and Asparagus Toast
1/2 lb. hamburger steak
2 tablespoons drippings
1 tablespoon butter
1 tablespoon flour
1/2 cup water
1 can asparagus soup
4 slices toast

Saute the hamburger in the drippings until slightly browned, stirring with a fork to keep the pieces separate. Melt the butter, stir in the flour, then add the water and stir until smooth. Add the asparagus soup stirring until creamy. Add the meat, then pour it over the toast slices. Serves four.

Long and Short of It

TWO contrasting studies at the world's oldest and largest annual industrial exhibition, the Canadian National Exhibition, which this year celebrates its fifty-seventh consecutive birthday. The fair is a civic project of the city of Toronto, Ontario. It started in 1879 and has grown in stature and importance ever since until today it occupies 350 acres and attracts an average attendance of two million visitors during the last week in August and first in September when it is open.

The long span of peace between the United States and Canada is an annual feature of the exhibition. It is observed by an international March Past of American and Canadian troops on "Warrior's Day." Side by side the military men of the two nations stride through the portals of the Prince's Gate, seen behind the soldier and little boy, and which stands on the site of Fort Rouille which was captured by American forces in the War of 1812, the last between the two nations.

Being Proficient, Efficient

Proficient and efficient are almost interchangeable, but not quite. Proficiency denotes skill, as does efficiency. But the latter introduces an element of mental capacity not connoted by the former. To illustrate: Two workmen may be equally proficient, equally facile with their tools. They are given identical jobs. One arranges his tools orderly, so that there will be no lost time in the performance of the job; the other mislays his tools and loses much time in finding them. The first is efficient; the second is not. Similarly, a woman may be a proficient, a capable housekeeper; but not nearly as efficient as she would be with modern mechanical aids.—Literary Digest.

Cooling Summer Beverages

THEY look attractive and they taste delicious—these two well-tested beverages which have natural unadorned pineapple juice for a base. They are not only cooling and refreshing, but healthful as well. Here are the recipes.

Pineapple Loganberry Punch
1 cup Hawaiian pineapple juice
1 cup loganberry juice
1 cup carbonated water
1/2 cup sugar
1 pint (2 cups) ice cubes
Dissolve the sugar in the mixed fruit juice, chill and let stand until ready to serve. Add the carbonated water and pour over cracked ice. Garnish with a few fresh or canned berries.

For serving 50, multiply recipe by 10.

and serve in a punch bowl with a large piece of ice.

Southern Style Cocktail

(Six servings)
1 1/2 cups Hawaiian pineapple juice
1 1/2 cups carbonated water
1/2 cup sugar
1 pint (2 cups) ice cubes
Dissolve the sugar in about 1/2 cup of the pineapple juice. Add a few chopped mint leaves, put on the fire and boil 5 minutes. Strain through cheese cloth, add other items, shake well and serve ice cold with one sprig of fresh mint leaf in each glass. This is an excellent beverage for children's parties and they will particularly like it if served with the colored candy straws which are now quite the vogue.

BREAKFAST has the undeserved reputation of being the meal in which it is most difficult to get variety.

It is admittedly difficult to vary the traditional eggs, bacon, and toast—but the course can have many and delicious variations. That modern blessing—ready-to-eat cereals—crisp and tempting, can be combined with an infinite variety of fruits. A delicious Sunday morning treat is a Cantaloupe Toastle. Cup—ice cold cantaloupe filled to overflowing with crisp, golden corn flakes. Try it some Sunday morning—or any morning for that matter.

Cantaloupe Toastle's Cup
Chill small ripe cantaloupes. Cut in halves, allowing one half to each serving. Remove seeds. Cut thin slices from bottom of each half so that cantaloupe will rest firmly on plate. Fill center with corn flakes. Serve with light cream and powdered sugar.

Antioch Aces Trim Waukeganites, 11-8

The Antioch Aces thought little of the Waukegan Northside Merchants' touted reputation as baseballers and smacked them Sunday afternoon at Naber Field for the long end of an 11 to 8 count. Bagel on the slab for the Aces breezed his strikeout offering past 12 of the Merchants while his mates chilled Winters, the losing hurler, with a cluster of 12 blingles. Ollie Hughes of the Aces and Rommel of the Merchants shared the long-distance clouting honors with a triple each.

This Sunday the Antioch Aces entertained the Edison Squares' representatives from Waukegan on the West Lake street diamond and Labor Day they hit the highways a pace for an engagement at Fox Lake. Lineups:

Lake Commerce School Has Heavy Enrollment

Lake College of Commerce of Waukegan opens its doors for the fall term, Tuesday, September 3, with the biggest enrollment of students since its organization. Paul P. Pottinger, president, announced. This is not only noticeable in the enrollment of students nearer home, but also in the registration of students from a distance. Interest is especially marked among college people, many of whom after one or two years of college have enrolled for the three months' course, he says.

The employment department has been active and reports that practically 100 per cent of the students are placed in good positions. Chief among the developments during the summer has been the reorganization of the

AMUSEMENTS

Joe E. Brown Features Kenosha Theatre Bill in "Bright Lights" Sun.

Joe E. Brown, the funnel-mouthed comedian, comes to the Kenosha Theatre Sunday in what is heralded as his most uproarious comedy romance. In addition to Joe's laugh-provoking stunts, there are four lively songs, for the picture is one of back stage life and the singing comes in naturally.

Scores of pretty chorus and dancing girls appear in the theatrical sequences but "Bright Lights" is neither a musical or a farce, but a stirring romantic comedy.

The story is by Lois Leeson and concerns Joe E.'s quick jump from a burlesque comedy troupe to a big Broadway actor, playing with a madcap holress, Patricia Ellis, out for adventure. His wife and partner in the burlesque show, Ann Dvorak, is out of it and goes back to small time.

Joe's head swells which causes many complications which lead to a unique and amazing climax.

Starting Saturday the Gateway Theatre in Kenosha has two feature pictures. Richard Dix in "The Arizonian" and Gene Stratton Porter's never to be forgotten story, "Keeper of the Bees."

employment department with Louis A. Johnson making personal contacts.

Reports show that stenographers have recently been sent to lawyers, finance companies, building concerns, manufacturing enterprises, and various retail lines.

While accounting has been the main stepping stones for young men, present indications show that a secretarial course in addition to the bookkeeping course is required.

Mrs. Helen Quarnstrom, vice-president and manager of the school since 1929, will again have charge of the advanced dictation and secretarial courses. Louis A. Johnson will head the accounting classes, and Marjorie Best will conduct theory classes. The typewriting and comptometer departments will be under the supervision of Walter Brunet. The instructors have had practical business experience, fitting them particularly for the type of work they are carrying on in their classrooms. The success of their teaching is well indicated by the fact that Lake College of Commerce students gained high honors at the Century of Progress Commercial contests in Chicago in 1933 and 1934.

While day school registrations have been heavy, marked interest has also been shown in the night course, night school starting October 1 and being held every Tuesday and Thursday.

HOMESTEAD PLAN ---

correct upbringing of future citizens, therefore each plot of land purchased for this plan was located near a good school. This proved to be good judgment for in many cases the children will revolve decadent schools and permit consolidation of school to the advantage of both children and school districts. This point should not be overlooked by parents who seek the best for their children in the educational line.

"Another misconception of the project is that there will be a communal ownership of tools, animals, or communal buildings. Nothing could be further from the idea of the project. We do want the people to co-operate, not as communal owners of anything, but as neighbors. We want and urge them to attend a community lecture on gardening, animal husbandry, poultry raising, and other informative lectures offered in the neighborhood by various agencies. They should also co-operate with one another in working out their home plans. Should one man be a carpenter for instance, and his neighbor a plumber, they should exchange work, and so on. Repeated experiments have proved that, in this country at least, that communal ownerships lead only to failure.

"As I have said before, the cost of the whole homestead will approximate $4,000. This homestead is purchased at the cost price by the prospect, who must live on the place five years before he acquires a sufficient equity to dispose of his holdings should he desire to do so. This $4,000 is paid back to the government in regular monthly installments at the rate of $4.25 per $1,000 cost. This payment (on $4,000) of $17 per month includes payment on principal, interest, insurance, and taxes. This rate of payment amounts to approximately three per cent interest on the total amount and the payments extend over a period of thirty years.

"It should be pointed out that this statement of including 'taxes' should carry with it the explanation that, being government land, it is tax exempt until such time as the homesteader purchases the entire equity. However, an equitable plan to recompense local governments and school districts for the additional burdens that may be put on them by families on these ten-acre tracts, is now receiving serious consideration by the leaders of the project.

"The requirement of a five year residence may seem a hardship on the homesteader, but when one realizes that the object of the plan is to locate people in the country in an effort to decentralize population in cities, it is not such a harsh requirement. Then, too, with the husband and father working part-time at a job, it would not be probable that, even with the help of his family, to complete the necessary work of finishing the country home in spare time in less than this time, according to experts who have studied the problem.

"Now, lest there still be doubt in the minds of some as to the idea and requirements of the plan, I repeat: First, it is not a relief or works project; second, no preference is given or stipulated to any class of citizens; third, your income must range from $700 to $1,000; fourth, you must make regular monthly payments to the government; fifth the government will furnish electricity, a house and basement, out-buildings and a well, but you must supply the bathroom fixtures, electric fixtures, tools, poultry, shrubs, trees and seeds; sixth, you'll be required to live on the farm at least five years; seventh, there is nothing in the agreement that you can't increase your earnings after establishing yourself on the homestead, nor is there anything to prevent you from selling the produce raised on the homestead. In fact, after getting established, you will be encouraged to increase your earnings to better care for your family and make life easier to live; eighth, the husband and father should not be over 50 years of age.

Still another point should be emphasized: These ten-acre farms are not subsistence farms. They are a part of a rural resettlement project under the direction of Dr. Carl Taylor, a protégé of Rexford Guy Tugwell in Washington, D. C. The Lake County sector is under the guidance of a committee under the leadership of George F. Gonzales and his aides. The temporary offices of the Lake county branch are at 116 Lake street, Libertyville, at which place detailed information and application for a homestead may be made."

Channel Lake Beats Lake Villa, 12-7

After playing second-fiddle to the Lake Villa softballers for the past few weeks, the representatives of the Channel Lake A. C. caught up with their rivals last week and smacked them down, 12 to 7. The tilt started out in Lake Villa's habitual style when they entailed the Lakers with Sluggo Turk connecting with one of Ed Sorenson's offerings for the complete tour of the bags with three mates romping home ahead of him. Ben Fox was sent in to relieve the Channel Lake pitcher after two outs were stowed away in the 4th and had better success in stalling the Lake Villa bats. Bud Kennedy ignited the fireworks for the Laker's rally and provided a pair of homers to the 11 hits collected off of Ed Tiede.
